

Noncustodial PROFILE Waiver Appeal Form

Fairfield University believes that the primary responsibility for education expenses starts with the student and the family. In cases of divorce, separation, and/or nonexistent marital history between biological parents, the parent (and if applicable step-parent) with whom the student resides is responsible for completing and contributing to the financial aid application process.

While these familial circumstances may complicate the extent to which parent(s) can and are willing to contribute to the Appeal Form, you, as the student, are petitioning that an exception be made to Fairfield University's Noncustodial Parent (NCP) policy and Noncustodial PROFILE requirement.

Submission of this appeal form does not guarantee that the waiver will be granted. Submission of this appeal form does not guarantee an offer of financial aid, nor does it prevent the accrual of late fees or unpaid student account balances due the University.
